

It might be considered a deliberate decision by Sydney Zoo to locate themselves subject to a similar offering to reduce the effort required to establish their market that would be required if they were to locate it in a more suitable area of the Greater Sydney area - ie Campbelltown, Wollongong, St George, et just to name a few

Kath Stryant

