The land is sacred amongst the local indigenous population.

The pollution and social impacts being on an almost neighbouring property is disgusting in my infant daughter.

In speaking to local doctors the threat of the microplastics on myself and my family are too great.

To think my family should just stay inside on windy days to avoid cancerous materials is negligent and evil. If this goes ahead, get your cheque books ready because the moment me or my family become sick, you'll be paying out the rear end to pay for our care, damages etc- (think Erin Brockovich).

My road will be chock a block with trucks all day and all night, it's crap.
