

Absolute compliance with SEPP65 / ADG requirements for solar access are difficult at winter solstice due to south facing slopes and street orientation.