Dear Aron,

Further to my email (below) in regards to DA/649/2018, on a completely different subject, I thought you and the Hon. David Elliot, MP might be interested in a piece I have written recently in opposition to the proposed Cockle Bay Wharf redevelopment.

The proposed development came to my attention the other day when I read Jacob Saulwick's article in the SMH:

<https://www.smh.com.au/national/nsw/berejiklian-government-backs-over-shadowing-of-future-public-square-20190212-p50xc6.html>

The design and construction of the three towers, the Star Court and the Garden between the towers plus the design and construction of Cockle Bay Wharf have a close sentimental connection to us as a family. My wife's brother, Eric Kuhne, was the Master Architect.

Model in Darling Park built by Eric Kuhne's staff

So, using the following link I sent the attached PDF as a submission in opposition to the proposed redevelopment:

<https://www.ipcn.nsw.gov.au/have-your-say?project=99791b41-3d45-405b-a43f-e6ce0984016b>

The PDF will give you some idea of the impact Eric has had, not only on the lives of our whole family, but also on the countless thousands of people who enjoy the depth of research and thought that has gone into all his projects. We have visited most of his projects, all amazing testament to his philosophy of civic design, the most spectacular being the Titanic Museum in Belfast.

As intimated in the attached PDF, it is distressing to think the unique quality in the the shape of a ship design of Cockle Bay Wharf in will be entirely lost if this proposed re-development proceeds.

I am cognisant of how busy Mr. Elliot is as we approach the elections. However, if you think this email and its attachment would be of interest to him feel free to forward it to him.

Likewise, if Mr. Elliot believes the content of my email and the attachment would be informative for the Hon. Anthony Roberts, MP, I would have no objection to my email and attachment being brought to his attention by Mr. Elliot.

With my warm regards,

Sincerely,

Dr. John Howell.

Dear Aron,

Please pass on our gratitude to Hon. David Elliot for his support in opposition to DA/649/2018.

I am assuming Julie Lockhart is on the staff of the City of Parramatta Council – Correct?

I yet haven't heard from the Council any details regarding the date of the PLPP.

With sincere thanks for your personal interest and guidance,

John Howell.

Dear Julie

Thank you for your assistance.

Please find the original email – Mr Elliott’s representation is the attached document entitled “Howell – 83 Woodbury Street”.

Since the resubmission deadline for the DA was this Monday and no update has been received, we would like to reiterate that Mr Elliott supports Mr Howell’s submission and, by extension, his opposition to the amended proposal.

Please do not hesitate to contact me on [REDACTED] if you have any further questions.

Thank you again for your assistance.

Kind Regards Always,
