I have lived in Kentucky my entire life and I have no concerns about the proposed development except the Tamworth and Uralla Councils involvement. As a community member I am very concerned about both councils trying to take control of the Kentucky Community Benefit Fund. The local Kentucky Community is the most affected by the development and therefore should be the decision makers in how our Community Benefit Funds are distributed. I would support a committee of locals as decision-makers, distributing funds to local community groups in the most affected areas.
