There are many things that I could write about this proposed plastics refinery... But the simple question is: why would we build this so close residential, tourism and agricultural locations? With so much isolated and desolate space in the Australian continent, it simply doesn't make sense. I have many friends and family residing in Moss Vale and the surrounding suburbs and I am genuinely concerned for the families and the quality of life they will have to sacrifice should this development go ahead. Air and water pollution topping the list of reasons why Moss Vale should not be subjected to this development, nor should any part of the southern highlands. Build it somewhere remote, away from families, away from areas that feed into drinking water supply...
