

NAME REDACTED

OBJECT

Submission ID: 213946

Organisation: N/A	Key issues: Social impacts, Land use compatibility (surrounding land uses), Other issues
Location: Redacted
Attachment: N/A

Submission date: 11/14/2024 7:13:22 PM

Plastic recycling refineries are usually classed as heavy industrial, due to risk of air/water pollution in event of failure of safety processes and extremely high fire risk. There have been over 19 devastating fires associated with plastics facilities since 2019 in Australia alone. The question of fire is not if, but when.
