We used to live in the Southern Highlands, a vastly beautiful and quiet region of NSW. This is not a site appropriate for a facility of this size. The impact to the surrounding communities is detrimental. The trucks, traffic increase, noise, pollutants and resulting advice to people to limit time outdoors is outrageous. The reason people live here is to be in the country, not exposed to potential harmful pollution and traffic noise. This would degrade a community of why they have chosen to live here and negatively impact it now and into the future.
